This particular monument is perfect for re engraving on the back , its thick , in great condition and more than stable enough to take an engraving, with more worn monuments, hand engraving may need to be done.

We will of course do our best to match the fonts of new inscription to original

C5-13 Taylor (broken)

Since restoration work began, monument C5-13 has been missing the top portion. An image of the original was found in a local newspaper article and will be used as the basis to recreate and replace the original stone, with modified language.

CHILD JOINS WITH MOURNERS AT PET MEMORIAL SERVICE
 Animal lovers from Toronto and other parts of Ontario took part in a memorial service held yesterday at Silverdale Farms, Aurora, for the pets buried there in Happy Woodland Pet Cemetery. Little Joan Taylor, 2 1/2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor, of 1007 Dufferin St., Toronto, is shown ABOVE, standing beside the grave of "Nigger," a black collie that was her playmate and guardian when she was a tiny baby. The headstone, like many other such memorials in the cemetery, has the likeness of the dog carved upon it. The inscription reads, "Perhaps he listens at the door."
