1. Funding Needs and Purpose

The Canadian Philharmonic Multiculture Association was established on December 28, 2024. Corporation Number: 1662271-2. Register address : [REDACTED] Aurora, ON, [REDACTED]. The members of the Canadian Philharmonic Women's Choir are all retired individuals, with an average age of exceeding 67. Over the past year, the choir has actively held training and rehearsals every Saturday at Aurora library. At present, limited fund from membership fees ($60 per member annually) are far from sufficient to support or host any public events. However, the choir is well-prepared and has a clear plan to hold several events in 2026. The choir is now facing a serious shortage of funding and urgently requires government support to ensure its continued operation and ability to serve the Aurora community.

The requested funding will primarily be used for the following purposes: purchasing essential musical equipment such as sound system, and microphones; hiring a vocal coach and a piano accompanist; customizing uniform performance attire; and covering costs related to community outreach performances, including venue rental and logistical support.

All funds will be dedicated to the development of the choir and the provision of public cultural services, with the goal of enhancing the quality and capacity of multicultural arts services within the community.

2. Community Engagement and Social Impact

The Canadian Philharmonic Women's Choir is rooted in the Aurora community, providing public music services to seniors, youth, and children.

Proposal 1: The choir has initiated contact with senior residences in Aurora and is currently awaiting final approval. The choir plan to regularly visits senior care facilities to offer outreach performances, bringing companionship to the elderly and helping to ease feelings of loneliness.

Proposal 2: On June 7, 2026, the Canadian Philharmonic Association will host a Youth Talent Show at Aurora Center's Small Theatre. Youth under the age of 16 who reside in Aurora are eligible to participate.

Proposal 3: On September 2026, The Canadian Philharmonic association will participate multicultural event in Aurora. The choir actively participates in local cultural and festive events, enriching public cultural life, promoting multicultural integration, and strengthening community cohesion. Through the art of women's choral singing, the group spreads warmth and positive energy, contributing to the development of a harmonious, caring, and vibrant local community.
